The Rumanian ship TRANSYLVANIA, passed Istanbul on 4 September 1949 on the way to Rumania, carrying 130 Albanians. A total of 5,000-6,000 albanians have already been shipped to Rumania. They are said to receive their training in Rumanian camps as well as in the Carpathian mountains at Baile Herculane and at Ramnicul-Valces. In the Dobrudja, near a Russian headquarters but completely separated from it, are barracks where Albanians and Yugoslavs who have fled across the border are trained. The number of Yugoslav escapees has been estimated in Rumania at approximately 10,000.
